

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 640

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize Spring Antioch Baptist Church on the occasion of its sixth anniversary; and

WHEREAS, The Spring Antioch Baptist Church has its origins with members of a Bible study group who began meeting in the home of Patrick Daigle on January 11, 1999; the Bible study group continued to grow, and on March 29, 1999, the Reverend E. A. Wilson announced that he intended to organize a church in the Spring community and use the study group as the core body; and

WHEREAS, Members of the study group were enthusiastic about following the lead of Reverend Wilson, which included a detour through the Bordersville community where they began a street ministry; seven months later, they moved into a beautiful new church building and had their first service on December 3, 1999; and

WHEREAS, The church has continued to grow and undertake many worthy projects in the community; through its many ministries, it provides services for people of all ages; and

WHEREAS, The Spring Antioch Baptist Church has been a source of strength for its members during times of hardships and in times of bereavement; it offers both the hope of the Gospel message and the practical demonstration of it; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 79th Legislature, hereby extend best wishes to the clergy and members of Spring Antioch Baptist Church for a memorable sixth anniversary celebration; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for them as an expression of esteem from the Texas Senate.
